AFSFF Charles J. Heubusch Scholarship Fund
Air Force Security Forces Association

The Charles J. Heubusch Scholarship Fund was established in memory of Colonel (ret) Charles J. Heubusch, a 27-year veteran Air Police and Security Police officer. He held a wide variety of positions with multiple commands in the US and overseas. Upon retirement, Colonel Heubusch became a Policy Analyst for the Columbia Services Group, Inc., analyzing changes in National Security Classification policy for the US Department of Energy, Office of Declassification. Later he served as a Program Coordinator for the Wackenhut Services, Inc. He felt strongly about the importance of caring for the young enlisted Security Police force, always stressing the importance of education.

This scholarship fund is open to all active duty enlisted Security Forces members of in the rank of E-6 and below. Their spouses are also eligible to compete for the two (2) Charles J. Heubusch Scholarship Fund $500.00 grants awarded annually. Those pursuing education in accredited community, junior and four-year university programs are eligible for these grants.

The Charles J. Heubusch Scholarship Fund forms can be found on the AFSFA web site and downloaded at any time.

The completed forms, both Individuals and Commanders, must be submitted by mail or as pdf files between 1 July and 31 August annually to:

AFSFA National Headquarters or afsfaprime@outlook.com
